HELLO

Hello, Namaste

↗ isn't just a word, it's a Brand

Once upon a time, "Hello" was just a way to catch someone's attention. Then it became the first word you heard on the telephone.

"Hello" was everywhere – not just a word, but a signal. A cue that someone was reaching out, ready to be seen, heard, and remembered.

Now? It's a brand in itself – simple, powerful, unforgettable.

Greypix Studio,

➤ Turning Names into Brands the World Says Hello to

At Greypix Studio, we believe in this same philosophy.

We don't just design, We don't just write. We introduce — your brand, your voice, your vision — to the world with clarity, creativity and connection.

Whether you're a business, a service provider, or a creator, we help shape your identity so that when the world sees you, it doesn't just glance...it remembers.

We craft communication design with:

Purpose | Storytelling | Message | Values | Emotional connection | Authenticity

Like "Hello", your name deserves to be known, recalled, and trusted by the masses.

DGA pays an ode to Gujarat's Art Heritage, our logo too goes hand in hand with the essence of this collection.

Here's how the art heritage and culture of the land where beauty rises inspired the DGA logo.

logo mark

A logo mark is a condensed version of your brand's primary logo, with a focus on simplicity and clarity. It can be composed of an icon or a combination of two letters that encapsulate the essence of your brand.

When you're working with limited space, the logo mark is the optimal choice for maintaining brand recognition and visual appeal. It's like having a pocket-sized superhero that can make a big impact with a single image.

Notes:

The logo mark is distinctive and shares qualities from the primary logo. The arrow from the logotype has been used to create recognition across your brand.

BRAND INSPIRATION

DGA is a gold jewelry brand inspired by the rich tradition of Gujarat's Bandhani art. Our designs blend cultural heritage with modern elegance, celebrating timeless beauty. The Bandhani-inspired logo reflects our roots in tradition, crafting not just jewelry—but stories in gold.

UI UX

The brief was to create a mobile application for Rama Organics, a bridge between farmer and vendors, who wanted to sell quick while highlighting local and seasonal products. I therefore imagined the entire branding of the brand.

Through the chosen name “Rama Organic” (“Only joyful Things”), the aim was to convey the idea of simplicity and closeness that Rama Organic wants to share through authentic and natural from farm products. The graphic universe of “Rama Organic” reflects the image of raw and organic veges and fruits.
